The Lakeside Messenger

Lakeside United Methodist Church, Pine Bluff, Arkansas 71601

Volume MMXXII, Issue 36, September 7, 2022

Last week, I shared a parable that had been causing me holy irritation with the balance between mercy and justice. This week I want to share another parable about the balance between mercy and just that causes me, and I'm sure others, a holy irritation nearly every time it is read. The parable of the vineyard workers is found at Matthew 20:1-16.

"The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. <sup>2</sup> After he agreed with the workers to pay them a denarion, he sent them into his vineyard. <sup>3</sup> Then he went out around nine in the morning and saw others standing around the marketplace doing nothing. <sup>4</sup> He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I'll pay you whatever is right.' <sup>5</sup> And they went.

"Again around noon and then at three in the afternoon, he did the same thing. <sup>6</sup> Around five in the afternoon he went and found others standing around, and he said to them, 'Why are you just standing around here doing nothing all day long?' <sup>7</sup> "Because nobody has hired us,' they replied. "He responded, 'You also go into the vineyard.'

<sup>8</sup> "When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the workers and give them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and moving on finally to the first.' <sup>9</sup> When those who were hired at five in the afternoon came, each one received a denarion. <sup>10</sup> Now when those hired first came, they thought they would receive more. But each of them also received a denarion. <sup>11</sup> When they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, <sup>12</sup> 'These who were hired last worked one hour, and they received the same pay as we did even though we had to work the whole day in the hot sun.'

<sup>13</sup> "But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I did you no wrong. Didn't I agree to pay you a denarion? <sup>14</sup> Take what belongs to you and go. I want to give to this one who was hired last the same as I give to you. <sup>15</sup> Don't I have the right to do what I want with what belongs to me? Or are you resentful because I'm generous?' <sup>16</sup> So those who are last will be first. And those who are first will be last."

In this parable, Jesus offends our sense of fairness. He teaches us that God's ways not our ways. God's economy of grace and mercy values the vineyard workers equally whether they worked twelve hours or two hours. For those of us trapped in the mindset of earning our place (and our pay), this parable offered by our Lord causes holy irritation. I can feel my gut wrenching as I am wrestling with these words!

What is it that causes us such holy irritation at God's compassion and mercy? Why do we feel slighted, or worse yet, angered when Christ's grace treats everyone the same regardless of his or her efforts? What will it take to move from holy irritation to holy celebration that our brother or sister has been blessed by Christ's gracious and abundant gifts? What must we be willing to allow God to change in us? Come Holy Spirit, come!

Lakesiders, having promised to be loyal to Jesus Christ through The United Methodist Church and to do all in our power to strengthen its ministries, live out our promise by God's grace together— participating faithfully in the ministries of Lakeside United Methodist Church by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness, making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world!

This Saturday, September 10 at 9:00 a.m. a shower will be held in The Center to celebrate the birth of Kelly and Josh's baby.

Kelly is the daughter of Laura Richards. Kelly and Josh live in Hong Kong which makes the transportation of gifts and gift cards difficult.

We are asking that you bring cash in a card for the shower so that Laura can transfer it into their account, and they may use this for their needs. The shower is early in the morning so that we can see and visit via Zoom with the future mom from home before she goes to bed.

Hostesses are Sandy Bobo, Ramona Harkins, Penny Whitener & Deborah Whitaker

The 2022-2023 Church Directories are now available. Pick up yours on the table as you enter the Chapel or the Sanctuary. They are also available in the church office.
